Gợi ý 1:

Dear Miss Sweetie,

I am in grade 9 at a school in city. I love my school, my teacher and my parents.

But this year, I have to learn too much. My parents want me to become an engineer so I must try my best to enter the best university. Beside that, I have to come to center to learn English. My weekend is also fully booked with music class, swimming class... I don't have time for myself. I don't know how to tell with my parents about this problem. Could you give me some advice about this?

Unhappy

Gợi ý 2:

Dear Ms. Sweetie

I am a boy in Ha Noi. I am a student in a secondary school.

I'm feeling depressed and tense about my situation. I'm among the top students in my class. A classmate of mine forces me to do all of his homework every day and even let him copy my answers in the exams. He threatened to beat me and make my school life difficult if I don't do as he asks. This makes me scared whenever going to school...

Can you give me some advices to solve this problem?

Thank you sincerely,

Anonymous

b. As a whole class, put the notes in a pile and take a diferent note. .... (Cả lớp đặt các thông điệp trong 1 cột và làm nhiều thông điệp khác nhau. Viết một câu trả lời ngắn (2-3 câu) để cho lời khuyên về vấn đề. Sử dụng khung "Cho lời khuyên" trong khung ở trên để tham khảo.)

Gợi ý 1:

I think you should talk to your parents about the situation and tell them about what you really want. About your schedule, you should ask your parents to rearrange it so that you can have time to relax. That must be better for not only your physical but also mental health.

Gợi ý 2:

Go tell your teacher this story. If you're afraid, ask her/him to keep it secret and solve this problem flexibly. Do not be scared, you can stand up for yourself.
